Table of Contents

ix .................. Acknowledgements xii .................. Review of this Work xiii .................. Prologue xvii ................. Introduction xvii .................. Optimal Models xix .................. About this Book xix .................. Organization xx .................... Terms Used in this Book xxi .................. Background xxi .................. Bilingual Education in Sweden and Denmark: What Does it Look Like? xxiii ................ A Decade of Transition: What Have They Learned?
xxv .................. Other Sources of Information xxvii .............. Sweden and Denmark: A Brief Overview xxvii .............. Identification and Early Services xxviii ............. School Placement xxx .................. Support for Home Languages xxx .................. Sign Language as an Academic Subject xxxi ................ Sign Language Instruction for Parents and Teachers xxxii ............... Factors Leading to Change xxxiv ................ Experimental Classes xxxiv ................ Transition

1 ........ Chapter One: A Closer Look: Developing Literacy

3 ........ Adam’s Book
15 .......... Trusting the Children’s Process 16 .......... Outcomes
16 .......... Reading Achievement
20 .......... Overall Achievement
23 .......... Developing Literacy: Theory 27 .......... Comprehensible Input 28 .......... Grammar Teaching 32 .......... Literacy and Developing Skills in the Spoken Language 33 .......... One Basic Prerequisite 36 .......... Timing is Critical: First Things First 38 .......... Writing 40 .......... The Role of Errors
43 .......... The Pay-Offs of Patience 46 .......... At Their Own Pace
48 .......... Expression in Either Language “Counts” 50 .......... Process Writing/Sighing
Chapter Four: Let the Teachers Be Teachers

157 Trust
158 Deaf Teachers
161 Sign Language as an Academic Subject/Deaf Studies
163 Expertise
163 Knowledge of the Structure of Both Languages 166 Knowledge of the Language of the Deaf Community 169 Training for Teachers of Sign Language/Deaf Studies as an Academic Subject

170 Respect for Both Languages
171 Good News
172 Commitment to Individualization
173 Larger Class Size: An Important Strategy for Individualizing 176 A Team Effort
Chapter Five: Change the System, Not the Children Meeting Deaf Children "Where They Live" “Yes, but..."
Cost-effectiveness
Socioeconomic status of parents Cultural diversity
The impact of bilingual education for minority Deaf children Deaf/Hearing dynamics Sharing Sign Language and Deaf culture Hearing and Deaf parents connecting Lack of expertise Making changes in a large, diverse nation
Turning the World Upside Down Making a Transition

Appendices
Appendix A: Author's Note: Terms Used in this Book Rationale Conventions
Appendix B: Procedure and Limitations of this Study Appendix C: Addresses of Organizations Named in Text Appendix D: Diagram of the Swedish School System
Appendix E: Swedish National Curriculum
Appendix F: Bonaventura Parents' Organization Advice to "New" Parents

References